Mariclare Carey-Jones

Presenter

Hair: Blonde    Eyes: Brown    Build: Slim

Mariclare is known across the whole of Wales for her warm smile and professional manner.

For 7 years Mariclare Carey-Jones has worked as a presenter and reporter at ITV Wales news. It's a job that has taken her the length and breadth of the nation, as well as further afield to places like Panama and Antigua.

Mariclare's career began in radio when she was just 18. Determined to make it in the media, she started by answering the phones at her local station. But her talent was soon spotted and just 3 months later she had her own traffic and travel slot on Tony Blackburn's drive time show.

Since then Mariclare has developed as a performer, but she hasn't lost her natural style or flair.
